

In Bethlehem

in Bethlehem a child is born like on any other day he is wrapped in swaddling clothes and in a manger lay with tiny hands and tiny toes he is much like you and me yet the difference in this child is that he is Holy

he is Holy, Heaven's spotless lamb the one called Messiah the one they call the Great I Am the hope of all the world in this child can be found lying in a manger in Bethlehem the word of God was made alive and came in the flesh of man he left his throne, he left his home and came to walk this land this tiny child that cries out will soon cry out for you and me and pay the price for our sins with his life on Calvary

the one called Messiah
the one that's called the Great I Am
