

Silhouette

A silhouette hung up against the sky
A lifeless figure of a man upon a tree
Scrounged and beaten, spikes through his hands
A sacrifice had been made there for me
As Christ lay down his life
He prepared for us a way
A bridge back to the father
Had been built there that day mike bishop