

Three Crosses

Darkness filled the world
As lightning filled the sky
Three crosses on a hill
Three men condemned to die
One man's fate was sealed cause of unbelief
One man was promised life because he cried remember me
Between the two there hung a man
As a lamb that had been slain
For this moment he was born
For this cause he came
God in all his glory
Through his son Jesus Christ
Came and shed his blood and died
That we all may have life
Three crosses on a hill
Three men condemned to die
One chose heaven
One chose hell
One was the giver of life
