

MOM

*I walked away in silence
Except for the crying in my head
Still I could not believe
My loved one was now dead
Some might say there was no love
In this heart of mine
But I was all out of tears
No more could I find
It was a rainy day in September
When we laid her soul to rest
And far above all mothers
I know she was the best
With her kind and gentle hand
She would guide us all
I am now so thankful
She was faithful to her call
Now she's in the arms of Jesus
Where we all hope some day to be
And I know one day, again
My mother I will see
But for now I must face the bitter fact
That my mom's now gone
And I'm left in this world
To face life alone
