

Judgment Day

*When your life on earth is over
And your last breath has been drawn
And suddenly you are standing
In front of God upon the throne
As he reaches for the book of life
And gently takes it down
As he searches through the pages
Will your name somewhere be found
Will you stand before the Father
Embarrassed and ashamed
Or will you stand confident
As he calls out your name
Will yours be one of the souls
Cast into the wild abyss
Or will you be one
Taken into perfect bliss
Will you stand there with regret
From the choices that you made
Or rejoice that you accepted
When you heard that Jesus saves
The choice is yours the choice is mine
Yet salvations for one and all
We only need to say yes
When we hear our savior call
